Since 1974, David Shamitz has been involved in the design, installation and service of employee and executive fringe benefit programs for the church and business community. He was originally employed with the Hartford Life Insurance Company in New York City as a Group Sales Representative. After moving to the Hampton Roads area, David joined the firm of Raymond W. Stiles & Associates, an independent agency serving the insurance and financial planning needs of area churches. David assisted these religious organizations by providing fringe benefit programs for senior staff and complete benefit packages for all employees.

Since 1996, David has successfully expanded his financial services practice to serve members of the business community. He subsequently earned the professional designation of Charter Financial Consultant from the American College in 2001. David graduated from Ohio University with a MBA degree in Management in 1972. David is a long term member of both the National Association of Life Underwriters and the Society of Financial Service Professionals.

David attends Community Church of Chesapeake, where he serves as an Elder, frequently teaching and counselling individuals and families. David also conducts a weekly men's discipleship class with inmates at the Chesapeake City Jail.
