For over 20 years, Bob has been dedicated to helping his clients reach their financial goals. Although he provides a wide range of services to individuals, families and businesses, Bob's main focus is health insurance, particularly employee benefits and the individual health insurance Marketplace.

Bob was born in Brooklyn, New York. He received his Bachelor's degree in Business Administration and Accounting from Bryant College in 1972. It wasn't until 1983 that Bob moved to Virginia Beach, where he currently resides with his wife of 35 years, Kay. Outside of the office, Bob enjoys spending his free time on the tennis courts.
