As your personal financial representative, Steve Sabo will help you design and implement strategies that will assist you in the building of your financial future. Steve focuses on wealth accumulation, preservation, distribution and wealth transfer strategies. He also works with his clients to provide insurance protection, long-term care insurance, and disability income.

Steve was born and raised in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He served in the United State Army, and after being honorably discharged, was employed by Allegheny County while earning his degree from the University of Pittsburgh. In 1981, Steve relocated to Virginia Beach, Virginia as a newlywed and was initially employed by Prudential as a financial representative before joining The Frieden Agency in 1982. Steve has obtained his CLU® (Chartered Life Underwriter) and ChFC® (Chartered Financial Consultant) designations and attends continuing education classes on a regular basis.

Steve and his wife, Chris, have two sons. Ryan is a graduate of James Madison University and is currently living in Washington, DC. He works for Booz Allen. Kevin also graduated from James Madison and resides in Richmond. He teaches classes at the Visual Arts Center of Richmond.

Steve and his family love to travel anywhere and everywhere, but they also take advantage of vacationing at home in Virginia Beach, which provides the perfect places for almost year-round golfing, fishing, and boating.

Over the years, Steve has been an active participant in his community through church, youth sports and school.
